Proposal By Jaycees

Resident Doctor Eyed At Hospital

A discussion on the need of a resident physician or intern at City Hospital featured a membership meeting of the Wellsville Jaycees Monday night at the Jaycee Hall.

The membership voted to check with the hospital, the Medical Association in East Liverpool and the State Legislature concerning the proposal.

TWENTY attended. Richard Kevan, president, presided. Walter Henthorne, secretary, gave the invocation.

Guests included Norman Bell, Leonard Hephner, Ronald Green, Wayne Rose, Tom Lanam and Perry Mason. Rose, Lanam and Mason are former members. Hephner and Green were inducted as new members.

A thank-you letter was read from Debbie Burrows, who was named Miss Jaycee of 1964 during the Labor Day celebration. Miss Cathy Broderick, 1963 Miss Jaycee, will be entered in the Ohio Junior Miss Pageant.

A letter was received from Tower Pottery Sales of Seattle, Wash., asking for a list of pottery plants producing novelty ware.

It was announced the Jaycees have been awarded a contract for constructing a new pavilion at Hammond Park. Glenn Mathews and Kevan, co-chairmen, asked for members to contact them so they can set up work parties. The work probably will start this week.

WILLIAM Miller, chairman, reported on the Jaycee Day observance. Kevan said a new hot water tank has been installed for the hall by Dave Orr. The hall still needs painted and also a furnace.

A house committee was named to handle rentals and make certain the building is in good condition for each group. It includes Jim Laughlin, chairman, Kevan, Henthorne, Ed Todd, Don Snediker and Orr.

Henthorne, membership chairman, discussed plans for a membership drive in November.

Tom Reed said the Board of Directors had discussed sponsoring a football game between the East Liverpool and Wellsville Jaycees but abandoned the idea because of the danger of injuries.

Various projects were reviewed. Dave Lanam was named chairman of a committee to seal mine entrances along Route 7. He will be aided by Hephner and Henthorne.

THE MEMBERSHIP went on record backing the Stow Jaycees on a proposal to the State Legislature to prohibit municipalities to pay city income taxes.

Dan MacLean, instructor for the Jaycee Junior Rifle Club, said a hunter safety program will be held for the boys.

Kevan reported on the proposed $250 million bond issue on the fall ballot. Jaycees voted to back the state issue.

with the city of Chester to provide some $445,000 as its share.

Todd and D. Gary Keith of the Todd firm explained the estimates and plans to the board.

Discussion was held on the city's financing of the project by revenue bonds, to be authorized by Council, with a bonding firm handling the transaction.

Atty. James Jordan, counsel for the board, said the proposed contract with the Magnus & Co. of Cincinnati still is being studied. He suggested other bonding firms be consulted for financing plans, rates and discounts.

Atty. William Ingram, city solicitor, indicated the Magnus contract was acceptable to him.

Todd said the applications for the federal aid cannot be filed until the Todd firm is notified by a city - contracted bonding firm of the financing arrangements.

With the need for Council action on the resolutions, Mayor Harry Abrams notified three Councilmen — Don Chaney, Don Hissam and Charles Kology — who came to the City Hall. Councilmen Wayne Hutton and Carl Graham had come to the meeting earlier.

Jordan said he plans to recommend to Council that figures and rates be obtained from other bonding firms concerning the project financing. Council will meet next Tuesday night.

Treaty

mittie, Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., and others.

Russell voiced fears it might be the first step toward complete disarmament without the safeguard of inspection. He and the others said they were concerned that Soviet moratorium-breaking atmospheric tests in 1961 and 1962 put them at an advantage in high yield weapons, in anti-ballistic weapons system knowledge and in ways to harden missile emplacements.

In the end, an overwhelming majority of the Senate went along with the endorsement of the military Joint Chiefs of Staff, who said that with four specified safeguards, the military "risks and disadvantages," were acceptable.

Kennedy, in a letter read to the Senate by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., the Republican leader gave the Senate "unqualified and unequivocal assurances" U.S. security would be protected under the treaty.

He gave assurances that the United States will meet the military's four points by continuing an aggressive program of underground testing, maintaining a healthy laboratory weapons development program, keeping up a readiness to resume atmospheric testing if the Russians cheat, and expanding and improving its facilities for detecting such cheating as well as checking on Soviet atomic progress.

Young Votes For Pact And Lausche Against

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's two United States senators, both Democrats, took opposite sides today in the Senate's vote which ratified the limited test ban treaty.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, as he had announced previously he would do, voted against the treaty. Sen. Stephen M. Young voted for the treaty. Lausche was one of 19 senators against ratification, and Young was one of the 80 senators who voted for it.

2 Men Jailed After Fracas Termed 'Riot'

A diminutive Waterford Park jockey and an Akron man were jailed on fighting charges Monday night after a classic motorist-pedestrian argument involving five men that led to a "riot" call to the police department.

Untangling the conflicting stories in testimony taken this morning, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff convicted William G. Nesit of Akron on charges of disorderly conduct by fighting, but dismissed a similar charge against Pasquale Montesanto of Cleveland, the jockey. Nesit was fined $10 and costs.

The two were arrested as a result of a fracas on E. 4th St. in front of the Travelers Hotel that involved Nesit and two other Akron men — all pedestrians — and the jockey and his brother, William Montesanto, also of Cleveland, both in Pasquale Montesanto's car, police said.

Patrolman Jack Strobel testified he found Nesit and Pasquale Montesanto scuffling when several officers rushed to E. 4th St. at 8:30 in response to a report a "riot" was in progress.

The jockey and his brother told the court they were driving on E. 4th St. and as they approached the intersection at Market St. the three pedestrians were standing near the center of the street. Pasquale tooted the horn and asked the men to move, leading to some shouted imprecations from the pedestrians, the brothers testified.

Nesit told the court if there was any name-calling, he was not responsible for it. He said the jockey turned his car around and both brothers hopped out and began to argue with the Akron trio.

Nesit testified he was embroiled in a fight with Pasquale Montesanto. But the jockey said he was attempting to break up a scuffle between Nesit and William Montesanto, who has a bandaged hand as the result of amputation of a finger a month ago.

City Union Picks 2 For Delegates

Two delegate posts were filled Monday night at the monthly meeting of Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

John Cornell was named a delegate to Council 18, a regional organization with headquarters at Youngstown, and Robert Kelly was chosen as a delegate to the Trades and Labor Council, replacing Ken McCarty, president.

McCarty presided at the meeting in Carpenters Hall. About 20 attended.

Kelly reported on the union's state convention Sept. 7-8 at Columbus. Mrs. Catherine Martin, a delegate to Trades Council, reported on the central body's annual banquet, slated Oct. 19.

Next meeting is Oct. 28.

4-H News

Paula Mercer was named as president at a meeting of the Apache 4-H Club Monday night with Barbara McHenry of Chester R. D. 1.

Rud Hall was elected vice president. Brenda Mercer, secretary; Bob Walker, treasurer; Lewis Hall, reporter, and Lee Mercer, game leader.

Next meeting is Oct. 22, with Mrs. Donald Glenn Chester of R. D. 1.

Officers' Duties Outlined At Session For Jaycees

The organization structure, including the duties of each officer, chairman, and member, was outlined in detail at the initial fall membership meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Travelers Hotel.

Forty-six attended, including seven life members.

Robert Brooks, president, conducted business. Russell Brown, a member of the Board of Directors, presented the program. He introduced each officer, who in turn explained his specific duties.

STANDING chairman of the 1963-64 planned program also reviewed the activities anticipated by their committees. Chairmen follow:

Robert Lewis, membership; Bernard Barnhouse, records and recognition; John Parsons, ways and means; Ed Adkins, chairmanship training; Bill Horsley, District 20 meeting; George Hales and Frank Dawson, social activities; Bob Gessford, SPOKE awards; Parsons, boat regatta; Brown, life member award; Walt Kimbro, Jaycee Comment; Adkins, Jaycee Week; Dawson, Junior Olympics; Larry Walton, post-prom party; Vincent Laneve, home show; Bill Devon and Jerry Wines, Christmas activities.

Joseph Coons, public speaking; Robert Garner, inaugural ball; Jack Woerner, Bosses' Night; Woerner, Saturday dances; Ray Betteridge and Paul Grafton, coffee stop; John Yanni and Paul Blevins, Christmas float; Ralph Turner, Christmas gifts for Boys Industrial School; Richard Chadwick, David Daily and Bob Wydo, East Liverpool brochure; Tate Hilbert and Dave Kennedy, soap box derby; and Dennis McKenzie, Halloween dance.

SIX NEW MEMBERS were inducted. Lewis, state director, conducted the ceremony. They are Paul Good, Wydo, Frank Bosco, Keith Goodman, Benny Webber and Dave Parr.

Reports on various summer activities were presented by the chairmen. Lewis reported at least six members plan to attend the all-state meeting Saturday and Sunday at Columbus.

Hales announced a golf stag will be held Oct. 5. Horsley said East Liverpool will serve as host for a District 20 meeting in October.

A committee is investigating the possibility of participating in the Junior Miss pageant. A contestant would be selected locally and then sent on to the state contest.

Dale Kidd reported on plans for selection of a physical fitness leader to represent the city in a national contest.

PARSONS said the Jaycee Clowns have participated in area parades and plan to enter others.

Woerner was introduced as a candidate for the Board of Education. He spoke briefly.

Life members introduced were James Riggs, Don Burbick, Tom Eason, Ralph Finley, Jim Allison, Jack Hales and Herschel A. Rubin.

Robert Conroy was named to head the ticket sales for the Blue Flame Festival of the Ohio Valley Gas Co.

A letter of thanks was read from Bill Miller, chairman of the Wellsville Jaycee Day celebration, for participating in the event.

Film highlights of the Pittsburgh Steelers football team were screened.

Walton gave the invocation. The Board of Directors will meet Oct. 14.

Kensington Man Hurt When Auto Overturns

LISBON — Oscar Pitts, 28, of Kensington R. D. 1 is in Alliance City Hospital with injuries suffered when his car overturned on Route 30 near Minerva this morning at 1:30 after hitting a utility pole.

The Ohio Highway Patrol said Pitts, headed east, lost control and his 1956 sedan went off the right side of the road, hit the pole, turned over and landed in a creek. He suffered cuts of the scalp and neck and multiple body bruises.

The accident still is under investigation.

Ex-Recorder Given 1-20 Years In Prison

CLEVELAND (AP) — Former Cuyahoga County Recorder Frank S. Day was sentenced today to one to 20 years in the Ohio Penitentiary for payroll fraud and forgery.

Common Pleas Judge William K. Thomas, turning down a plea for probation in which Day was described as an "old, broken man," sentenced the 58-year-old former county official to concurrent terms of one to 20 years for forgery and one to 10 years on each of two counts of payroll fraud.

Grains Aid Plan Detailed For Farmers

LISBON — Price supports for corn, grain sorghum and barley in 1964 will again be made available through both loans and payments, C. F. Shaw, chairman of the Columbiana County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation committee, pointed out today.

Growers will qualify for the support by participating in the 1964 feed grain program, for which the signup period is planned early next year.

The total national average price-support levels for the three feed grains in 1964 will be the same as in 1963, but a slightly larger proportion of the support will be made available through loans.

As last year, the loan rate will vary according to counties. The support payment for each of the three grains, however, will be the same amount per bushel in all counties.

For the feed grains covered by the program, the loan rate, support payment and total national average support are, respectively, corn (per bushel), $1.10, 15 cents, $1.25; barley (per bushel) 84 cents, 12 cents, 96 cents; grain sorghum (per hundredweight), $1.77, 23 cents, $2.

Besides qualifying for price-support loans and support payments, the grower who participates in the 1964 feed grain program will earn a diversion payment on the acreage he shifts from feed grain production to a conservation use.

While the 1964 program is basically the same as the successful 1963 program, an important change increases the top limit on diversion from a farm's base acreage and also increases the rate of payment for maximum diversion.

In 1964, any producer may divert as much as 50 per cent of his feed grain base acreage (in 1963 it was 40 per cent). The maximum acreage diversion will be 25 acres if this is more than 50 per cent of the base. Also in 1964, producers who divert 40 per cent or more of the feed grain base acreage will receive diversion payments at the maximum rate for all acres diverted.

"While all details of the 1964 feed grain program have not yet been announced, growers having questions about the 1964 program are encouraged to call at the ASC county office, Farmers National Bank building, and we will do our best to answer them," Shaw said.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, Sept. 24, the 267th day of 1963. There are 98 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1869, a panic was caused in Wall Street when financiers Jay Gould and James Fisk Jr. attempted to corner the gold market and the government stepped in to sell gold from the U.S. Treasury.

On this date

In 1621, the first news sheet printed in English appeared in England. It had no name but is generally considered the beginning of English journalism.

In 1664, the British and the Iroquois Indians held their first convention at Albany, N.Y., and established a friendship that was to last for a century.

In 1780, Benedict Arnold escaped to the British ship Vulture after attempting to betray West Point.

In 1789, President George Washington named John Jay to be the first chief justice of the United States.

In 1878, the five-cent store of Frank Woolworth in Lancaster, Pa., put in a line of ten-cent goods to become the first five-and-ten-cent store.

Ten years ago, Rocky Marciano retained his world heavyweight boxing championship by scoring an 11th round TKO over Roland La Starza in New York.

Five years ago, The members of the British Commonwealth agreed on a plan to build a cable system linking them around the world for instant communication.

One year ago, The University of Mississippi bowed to a federal court order and agreed to accept Negro James Meredith as a student.

Radio Club Discusses Plans For 2 Courses

Plans for instruction of two weekly amateur radio classes were discussed at a meeting of the Triangle Amateur Radio Club Monday night at the Ohio Power Co. building.

Over 20 attended the start of a general class last night at the high school, and over 15 are expected to begin a novice course Wednesday night at the high school.

John Siranovich of Ohioview and Larry Armstrong of Route 20, club members, were instructors last night.

They Will Sing Here On Saturday

These quartets are among those which will take part in the fourth annual parade of quartets of Sweet Adelines, Inc., Saturday night at 8 at Westgate School.

and Carol Simmons, bass. The three housewives and a secretary are current champions of Region 4 and took seventh place during international competition last year at Toronto, Canada.

The Town and Country Four of Pittsburgh was 1963 international champions. Singing together since 1955, they are Jack Elder, baritone; Ralph Anderson, bass; Larry Autenreith, lead, and Leo Sisk, tenor.

Other features of the program are "The Pittsburghettes", second - place Central Atlantic Region winners; the local second - place winners, "The Heathertones", and "The Short Vincent String Quartet" from Cleveland.

Ellen Hood of Pittsburgh will be mistress of ceremonies. Glenn Woods will direct the chorus in several numbers.

An afterglow will follow at the Elks Club ballroom. Tickets for the show and afterglow may be purchased at Robins & Sant.

Land Donated For Scout Use At Lake Site

A large tract of wooded land near Highlandtown has been donated by a Youngstown businessman to the Mahoning Valley Boy Scout Council for use as a camp site.

The tract totals 422 acres and is located in Washington Township about a half mile from the site of the proposed Highlandtown Lake to be constructed by the state.

It was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stambaugh. He is president of the Stambaugh Hardwood Lumber Co. of Youngstown.

Records at Lisbon show the ground was purchased for about $13,000 from Bertha McNeal and others.

In describing the site, the Mahoning Valley Council said it is a rolling wooded area in southern Columbiana County about 15 miles south of Lisbon and seven miles northwest of Wellsville.

The council said the ground is not to be developed as a modern campsite but rather is to be used for advanced wilderness camping.

Scouts from the Columbiana Council still go to Camp Twin Spruce near Leesville Lake.

Local Physician Fined In Assault

A city physician was fined $100 and costs and given a suspended 30-day jail term by County Judge Herbert Arfman Monday at East Palestine on an assault charge filed by a Clarkson man.

Dr. Stephen Sinclair, 3301 Harding Ave., an eye specialist, was fined on the charge filed by Harry A. Thompson, 70, of Clarkson who was represented by County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw and his own counsel.

Thompson said he was struck by the physician last Wednesday night in the Calcutta area while standing by his truck. Testimony indicated Dr. Sinclair, driving with his family in a car, apparently became angered at Thompson over the latter's driving, and when Thompson pulled off the road, stopped and approached him.

The physician was questioned at length. Thompson said he was knocked against the hood of his truck, and was "momentarily dazed."

Abundant Supplies Of Meat Featured By Area Markets

Abundant supplies of beef, pork and poultry are being featured in area food markets, according to Ed Watkins, market information agent with the Agriculture Extension Service at Canfield.

Although wholesale and retail prices have not yet reflected the recent drop in the price of live hogs on the farm, this reduction is beginning to appear at retail markets. Price-wise, fresh shoulders, spare ribs and loins are excellent examples of where prices are being reduced.

From these wholesale cuts retail markets are featuring picnics, fresh shoulder roasts, spare ribs, pork steaks, loin roasts and chops. These offer a lot of variety in pork, especially well suited to the cooler fall weather.

Supplies of beef, which were rather plentiful throughout the summer, will continue to come to market in ample numbers to hold the present price level.

Weather usually has its effect on the kind of beef that home-makers buy during this period. With much cooler evenings, beef roasts from the forequarter and the round become more popular.

Examples of retail choices from these primal cuts are blade, round bone and English cut roasts from the forequarter together with heel of the round, top of the round and rolled roasts from the hindquarter. These cuts are frequent "store specials" during this period.

Broiler supplies are some 4 to 5 percent larger than last year. Since broilers are more plentiful when the demand usually starts to decline, some really good values are a feature of food markets in this area now.

For those who are thinking toward Thanksgiving, the size of the 1963 turkey crop is estimated at 92.7 million birds, nearly the same as the 92.3 million produced last year. Storage holdings of frozen turkeys are somewhat below last year. Total supplies for the season will be about equal to last year.

Egg prices have risen seven to nine cents per dozen since early August. This reflects a normal seasonal pattern. September is

God And Country Award Given To Irondale Scouts

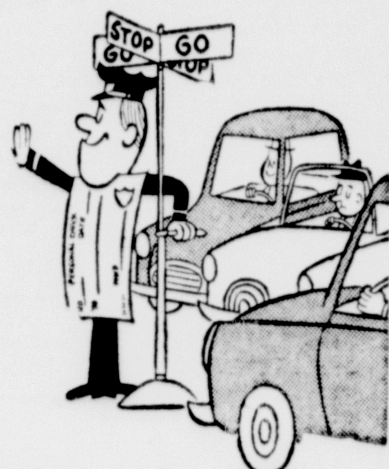

IRONDALE — Randy Perkins and Jim Pilutti, members of Boy Scout Troop 49, received the God and Country Award at ceremonies Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church.

The 16-year-old scouts are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Perkins and Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Pilutti. Charles Hoobler, scoutmaster, and Mrs. Pauline Paisley took part in the presentations. The awards are for religious work.

The scouts attend Stanton Local High School and are members of the varsity football team. John Pilutti, brother of the recipient, and David Mick are other troop members to have received the heart-shaped pin worn on the blouse.

Santa Fe was founded in 1609 by the Spanish as capital of New Mexico.

Lisbon Trees On Square To Be Trimmed

LISBON — Council Monday night agreed to have a tree care company remove two dead trees, trim the others and feed all the trees on the Public Square, with the county paying half.

Councilman Fred Steele reported he received four bids and Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi said Council could pay for the work although the square is owned by the county.

Steele said he had contacted county commissioners and they agreed to pay half of the cost of the lowest bid, which was $575 from the Jackson Tree Service of Wellsville.

Other bids were Davey Tree Co. of Kent, $598; John Holshue of Lisbon, $1,030.50; and Surburban Tree Trimming of Hubbard, $1,057.80.

Roy Brammer of Salineville, salesman for the Galion Co. grader, said he has a used 1954 American grader for $895. He said it needs about $100 worth of repairs.

Mayor Dean Stockman turned the proposal over to the street committee for further consideration.

The street committee, reporting on the parking problem at the high school, said parking is free around the building and there is no way to regulate it. Supt. Oliver Payne had asked the mayor for parking space for the teachers.

Two letters were read thanking the village for allowing free parking around the First Presbyterian Church for the Mahoning Presbytery Men's meeting Sept. 10. One came from the local church and the other from the secretary of the presbytery. Next meeting is Oct. 14 at 7:30 p. m.

Youth Hurts Finger; Girl Injured In Fall

A youth hurt playing football and a girl injured in a fall were among three area residents treated at City Hospital Monday.

Larry Moore, 16, of Glenmoor suffered injuries of the left little finger while playing football.

Frances Keuper, 13, daughter of Charles Keuper of McDonald St., received an injury to the right wrist in a fall.

Robert Carroll, 41, of 425 Morton St. was treated late yesterday morning for a fractured right ankle received while playing basketball.

Fall Injuries Fatal

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Chest injuries suffered when he fell about 15 feet from a new downtown building he was working on were fatal to Aubrey Landreth, 53, Cincinnati, Monday night.

Student Unit Eyes Case Of Ousted Negro

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — The case of Negro student Cleve McDowell, suspended from the University of Mississippi after his arrest on a civil charge of carrying a pistol, was expected to come before the Student Judicial Council today.

McDowell, 21, a law student from Drew, Miss., was entitled to leave jail to attend the hearing. It was uncertain whether he would do so.

Sheriff Joe Ford said he received a complaint Monday that McDowell was armed. The weapon was observed, the sheriff said, when it fell from the student's pocket. It was a .22 caliber pistol with a two-inch barrel.

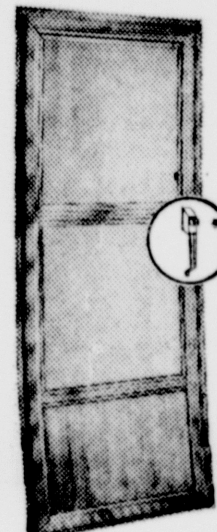

Ford said he picked up McDowell at the law school and found the weapon in his inside coat pocket. McDowell admitted it was his, the sheriff said, but made no other statement.

He was charged with carrying a concealed deadly weapon. The charge carries a maximum penalty of a $100 fine and three months in jail.

All students who enter the university must sign a pledge they will not carry firearms on the campus. It was understood that McDowell had signed such a pledge.

Benjamin Franklin wrote "There never was a good war or a bad peace."

Why Does The Senate Investigate?

This is the week the much-publicized Joseph Valachi starts to answer questions before the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan.

This subcommittee has done more investigating and made more news over the years than any other investigative group. A hoodlum in the United States isn't in the top circle unless he has been quizzed by Sen. McClellan.

Valachi, billed as a thief trafficker in narcotics and murderer, with overtones of mental derangement, is expected to be the most sensational feature soloist ever to appear before any congressional audience.

This is not because he has the greatest repertoire; many previous performers have had more to sing about than this refugee from the organized crime group popularly known as the "Mafia," more recently as Cosa Nostra.

IT IS BECAUSE Valachi wants to sing. It is his only chance to extend what has become a precarious lease on life.

He already has told the Department of Justice so much about his former associates that they are reported to have put up a $100,000 prize for his extermination. He has nothing to lose and his life to gain if he keeps on talking. Otherwise, he would lose the federal protection he now enjoys.

But this is a proper time to remember something that may be lost sight of during the concert. There is only one reason for Senate investigators to stage the kind of show in which Valachi has been billed as the "star."

That is to get information to enable senators to legislate about organized crime, a public problem in the United States. No one disputes that it's a problem.

BUT THIS problem has been in the open since the late Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee hit the road in 1950-51 with his televised spectacle of big-shot criminals writhing under television lights.

Nothing Valachi can do is likely to give any more insight into the problem than the Kefauver investigation, which revealed that organized crime and organization politics in the nation's large cities are so close together they're hard to tell apart.

Democratic leaders in the cities never forgave Sen. Kefauver for that.

Off And Running For 1964

Under the rules of the game, President Kennedy's trip this week through scenic wonders and conservation wonders in 11 states must be called an inspection tour.

This is one of the presidential prerogatives that gives fits to the competition, because only a president has the option of making multiple public appearances with resounding political repercussions at public expense.

Challengers must find someone able and willing to pay for their trips, unless they can pay themselves, which has been a peculiar advantage of New York Gov. Rockefeller these last few years and was Mr. Kennedy's great advantage in 1960.

THERE CAN BE no reasonable doubt that this presidential tour with its many chances for Mr. Kennedy to appear and speak is the opening move in his 1964 campaign.

Everybody else who might put on a campaign next year has been making opening moves — and except for Gov. Rockefeller all have been insisting they had no such thing in mind. The rules of the political game are strange in this respect.

President Kennedy knows for certain he will run next year, yet he is bound to play as coy as the Republicans who cannot know

As Good As Russian Gold

Do not be surprised by the warm glow of enthusiasm for doing business with the Soviet Union.

That half-billion-dollar wheat deal between the Soviet Union and Canada leveled more ideological barriers in the 24 hours than a generation of palaver could have smoothed over with a dialectical trowel in 24 years.

It was not merely the deal that made U.S. hearts beat faster. There are deals and deals, but this one calls for the Soviet Union to pay for what it is about to receive in dollars. It is to be an outright purchase of all of Canada's surplus wheat for the current crop year. The Kremlin will sell enough of its gold hoard to pay the bill.

WHEN U.S. WHEAT farmers heard this, they hoped fervently the Russian wheat crop failure had not been overestimated. If Premier Khrushchev was being forced to spend some of Russia's wealth for wheat, they hoped he would remember the United States had wheat for sale, too.

They hoped he would realize there would be no unnatural or awkward obstacles to a deal. They hoped Russia would not be misled by the false notion common in this country that deals with Russia are blocked by U.S. law. They aren't.

The only reason American producers haven't been selling stainless steel, wheat, corn, autos, household appliances, cotton, textiles and the assorted trivia of affluent living to Russia is mistrust of the kind of deals they would have to make — such as a million dollars' worth of underpriced rubber baby buggy bumpers for a shipload of overpriced borsch that no one would buy anyway.

IF PREMIER KHRUSHCHEV and his government have made up their collectivist minds to exchange some of Russia's vast gold reserves for things the rest of the world wants to sell, the United States will be standing first in line, ideologies to the contrary notwithstanding.

There wouldn't even be any violent opposition if some of the millions of bushels of surplus U.S. wheat ended up in the bellies of Cubans — if it had been paid for with Russian gold.

Progress Report

As a dedicated foe of home cooking, I welcome a report by the lady economist Sylvia Porter that will help to root this blight.

Miss Porter says prepared foods are saving not only time but money. She says the last time she looked into the matter seven years ago, the saving was in time only but now has spread to money.

This will help to clinch the case for food prepared by experts, instead of hit-or-miss amateurs. Perhaps because she is a woman and wanted to avoid a scrap, Miss Porter dodges the other vital factor about food prepared by experts.

Experts can do the job not only cheaper, considering both time and cash, but they can do it better. And before bleeding hearts pity the poor woman I split peas with, she is a whacking good cook.

SHE CAN POP a pan of something good from the freezer into the oven zippity-zap. She is unbeatable at opening cans of fruit concentrate, adding just the right amount of branch water and here's to Vitamin C! There isn't a fudge-maker this side of the Aleutians who can put her to shame in a contest to see who can whisk open a package of fudge-mix and woo her way into man's sweet graces faster than this little old home-maker. Yummy!

She hasn't made a bad cup of coffee since the first concentrated coffee came on the market. Slurp!

Her reputation as a cake-maker par excellence is shared with that world-renowned military Genius, Gen. Mills, and a globe trotter named Dunk Hines. Women send their little daughters from miles around to study cake-baking at the be-floured knees of this mistress of the handy package. Mmm!

Thanks to a freezer big enough to spark interest in a mortician's eye and lack of idle time to piddle away performing drudgery that makes no more sense in this age than grinding maize, flailing grain, drying apples and pickling eggs, the only thing that in its original form in the Twillery scullery are errant flies that take their lives with their own proboscises.

NEW PRODUCTS come along all the time. One of the latest is a potato puff that adds a wonderful dimension to the taste of spuds. Gone forever are net bags of potatoes with pale sprouts, soft spots, go-thither eyes and yards of peelings.

Tea leaves have disappeared after years of being fished out of strainers and flushed out of the sink.

Some of these things do not taste the same as they did when the chief cook used to run down a chicken, ax it, de-feather it and slip it into the skillet still twitching; when she nipped out to the garden and dug potatoes for supper, shelled a wagonload of peas to get enough to fill a kettle, ground the coffee in a noisy little mill clutched between her bony knees, then washed the dishes and pans with home-made soap and cistern water and dragged off to bed on a mattress stuffed with corn husks and rocks.

But they taste as good—and the taste gets better all the time. One day soon a generation will go from the cradle to the grave and never know the meaning of home cooking unless it wants to go backward.

The most populous state at the time the United States was formed was Virginia, with about 568,000 people. Following in order were Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Connecticut.

A Lot Of Weight To Toss Around

Hot War Looms On Home Front

By Victor Riesel

There's a rumbling, nationwide home front war looming. It will start when a big contemplative chap by the name of Lemuel Boulware —

the man who can easily win the loving cup for infuriating labor leaders — returns from Canada. He is relaxing and fishing and will return loaded for Victor Riesel bear, meaning "labor's monopoly power."

When Lem Boulware, retired vice president of General Electric, comes back he will be the heavy artillery in the National Association of Manufacturers' counteroffensive on the labor-management front.

This counteroffensive, which will include political action, was discussed at a three-day session of the N.A.M. board of directors at Hot Springs, Va., last week. At conferences at the "Homestead" there, the leaders of some 16,000 "small businessmen" put the finishing touches on plans for series of executive conferences on industrial relations.

THESE DISCUSSIONS will be held in three cities — New York, Cincinnati and Chicago — on three successive days at the end of October. Boulware will fly to each city to climax each session.

Before further discussing Boulware, it's important to paint the background against which he will speak.

This series of executive discussions was announced by the N.A.M.'s new permanent president W. P. Gullander — "Gully" to his friends. He has been revitalizing the organization which has been under constant attack by labor leaders for years.

The conference theme is not exactly couched in appealing terms. It is a call to action and the unions soon will realize it. That theme is "Union Power and the Public Interest."

Gullander hit hard when he announced the subject in these words:

"The fact that a union—or a group of unions—possesses the power to stop the flow of the country's transportation arteries increasingly imperils the nation's well-being."

"So long as unrestrained union power exists, the use of its possible — and when so used it's a threat to the public interest."

THIS STATEMENT, in itself, is sufficient to provoke high blood pressure among national labor leaders. But the selection of the articulate Lem Boulware as a triple keynote speaker is certain to trigger a cold war or hot words.

Four years Boulware has been the symbol of a hard stand against union demands. This philosophy the labor chiefs termed "Boulwarism." Virtually every time during the '50s management took a firm stand, it was charged with "Boulwarism."

Leading the outcry against Boulware was Jim Carey, head of the International Union of Electrical Workers, a close friend and ally of Walter Reuther.

Labor leaders assailed Boulware for developing what they called a "take it or leave it" attitude during the bargaining for new union contracts. He made a wage offer and then would not move, they said. They asserted that "Boulwarism" was unfair bargaining.

Boulware, a hearty fellow, chuckled at this mass attack. His position was — and is — that a firm should do its research carefully.

Businessmen should estimate how much they can give in wages, higher pensions, better welfare and improved working conditions — and still make a reasonable profit. They should define what management rights are. Then they should make an offer and stick with it — not start at the bottom and move up.

ONE INDUSTRIALIST described Boulware's policy as "How to succeed in bargaining without really lying."

Boulware was not against unionism. In fact, he has constantly urged the rank and file to turn out at local meetings and vote on all the issues.

Some years ago he retired from the GE vice presidency. Since then he has spoken out for a dynamic conservatism. Politically, it is safe to assume he is a hard-driving champion of Sen. Barry Goldwater. All of which becomes doubly significant because the N.A.M. now is urging all businessmen to plunge into politics — bipartisan politics through the new Business - Industry Political Action Committee (BIPAC).

One thing is certain. With Lem Boulware hitting the hustings, the great debate is on loud and clear.

Debate On Union Role

By Joel Seldin

The contrast was sharpened by the general awareness that at the same place a month earlier, the AFL-CIO Executive Council had decided to withhold endorsement of the march on Washington.

As with most debates, this one produced no agreements. If it had any significance, it was to crystallize the division among men who were once associates and are now opponents.

DEFENDING the unions were Gus Tyler, assistant president of the ILGWU, and Brendan Sexton, of the United Auto Workers. On the attack for the intellectuals were Harvey Swados, an author, and Irving Howe, an editor and college professor.

The burden of Tyler's position, in a long presentation, was that intellectual critics of labor are "negative" and devoid of "practical" idea.

He insisted that American unionism was still vital, and will maintain its strength by organizing service workers, government workers and the "new labor aristocrats" who man the electronic computers of automation.

Tyler's general thesis, that things are not really so bad as the intellectuals make them out, was based on his prediction that a four-part liberal political alliance is forming, with the new labor or strength as one of its components.

A second partner will be the Negroes.

Another group will be "positive" intellectuals. His candidates in this category were equivalent to a "Who's Who" of the Kennedy administration.

The fourth cornerstone of Tyler's vision of coalition was "American Catholicism," which he called a "sound force" that has been "progressive" on economic issues, although less satisfactory on social ones.

HE CONCEDED there were problems to be solved before this new force can be brought into being but he was sure they will be solved. The "negative" intellectuals will not be able to participate, however, he said.

Kennedy's U.N. Speech

By David Lawrence

Remarks Regarded As Encouraging

A very good speech was delivered the other day by President Kennedy before the United Nations General Assembly. There may be some disagreement about the practicality of his proposal for a joint effort with the Soviet Union to go to the moon — in fact, many people probably wish there could be a joint proposal to call off the stunt altogether so the same billions could be used to help poverty-stricken peoples. But, in the main, Mr. Kennedy constructed an address full of implicit meanings that will be hailed in the field of diplomacy as an encouraging attitude.

It was important, for instance, to give the cause of the United Nations a stimulus so as to persuade many member governments to pay their share of the expenses for current programs. So, too, was the emphasis on the successful negotiation of the treaty limiting nuclear tests. There was also a brief but significant reminder to the rest of the world that "the United States since the close of the war has sent over $100 billion worth of assistance to nations seeking economic viability."

There was a subtle suggestion, moreover, that more help should be forthcoming from those countries which now can afford it and which must in turn recognize "their responsibility to less-developed nations."

While the President endeavored to interpret the signing of the treaty limiting nuclear tests as possibly reducing world tension, he rightly stressed nevertheless the need for "safeguards against surprise attack" and the possibility of "war by accident or miscalculation."

Perhaps the most difficult and perplexing topic with which the President had to deal in his address was the continuance of the "cold war."

HE SPOKE hopefully of the recent nuclear test negotiations as having brought a "pause in the cold war." He suggested that the responsibilities of the Soviet Union and the United States in seeking peace "require our two countries to concentrate less on our differences and more on the means of resolving them peacefully."

Least this be construed as any indifference to the basic issues, Mr. Kennedy said that "no service is performed by failing to make clear our disagreements."

He pointedly added that "a central difference is the belief of the American people in self-determination for all peoples."

It was here that the President reiterated this government's belief that "the people of Germany and Berlin must be free to reunite their capital and their country."

He declared, also, that Cuba "must be free" and that "in all the world — in Eastern Europe, as well as Western, in Southern Africa as well as Northern, in old nations as well as new — people must be free to choose their own future, without discrimination or dictation, and without coercion or subversion."

The President appeared to be conscious of the activities in the U.N. of the organized bloc of Afro-Asian nations. While he condemned "all forms of human oppression" and expressed his disapproval of "apartheid," he made for the first time a comment that shows signs of understanding the problems of whites in South Africa.

He said that "we do not advocate the rights of black Africans in order to drive out white Africans." He made his plea on the basis of "the right of all men to equal protection and opportunity."

THERE WAS one note lacking in the President's speech. The omission may have been due to diplomatic expediency — a desire to say nothing at present that would be offensive to the Moscow regime.

The fact remains that all the hopes for peace in the world will be imperilled and tensions will continue so long as the Communist government is not removed or substantially changed by the will of the Soviet people.

Mr. Kennedy mentioned in one sentence a very vital point, but it needs elaboration and reiteration. He said:

"We must continue to seek agreement on a freer flow of information and people from East to West and West to East."

The very same speech of the President, for instance, was censored in the Soviet press so the Russian people couldn't read all of it. Other means of communication through such private agencies as Radio Free Europe become more and more necessary now in making contacts not only inside Russia but inside the countries of all the captive nations in Eastern Europe. Mr. Kennedy touched abstractly on the basic issue when he said:

"For we believe that truth is stronger than error, and that freedom is more enduring than coercion. And in the contest for a better life, all the world can be the winner."

ALL THE DIPLOMATIC phrases, restrained expressions and implicit avowals of some basic principles in international intercourse cannot erase from the worried minds of peoples everywhere the fear of a big war emerging some day from such critical situations as currently make headlines in the newspapers as they tell of the dangers in Viet Nam and in Cuba.

The U. S. secretary of defense and the chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff are this week in Viet Nam — many thousands of miles away from this country as American military forces seek to align themselves against Communist intrigue and subversion and guerrilla warfare.

All this is proof that some day realism must be articulated so that the Russian people can hear it. For unless the concept of world domination by infiltrating weak governments everywhere is repudiated by the people behind the iron curtain, the "cold war" cannot but lead to the nuclear war that nobody wants.

Lost And Found

At the height of Atlantis' power and glory, tradition has it, the legendary island-continent sank into the sea.

Since its reputed disappearance many thousands of years ago, the fabled "lost" continent has been "found" many times.

Plato's account of the cataclysm and his description of the ideal society that was thus destroyed have fired the imaginations of men for centuries on end.

Many people believe Atlantis actually existed. There are nearly as many theories about its disappearance and geographic location as there are believers.

The latest on Atlantis comes from a Soviet academician Prof. Georgiy Lindberg placed the submerged continent off Ireland in waters about three miles deep. But, Lindberg said, the sinking occurred several million years ago, long before man is known to have appeared on earth.

A Greek seismologist, Angelos G. Galanopoulos, has theorized that Atlantis stood in the Sea of Crete, not the Atlantic Ocean, and that its remains are the present islands of Santorin, Thirasia and Kameni.

At other times, Atlantis has been variously situated off the northwest corner of Spain, near the Azores, on dry land in the western bulge of Africa, in the Sahara desert, in North or South America, Tunisia, Palestine, Mongolia, Antarctica — almost everywhere.

The four major blood groups are A, B, AB, and O. About 41 per cent of all people fall into the A group, 45 per cent into the O group, 10 per cent into the B group and four per cent into the AB group.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Paul Hayes of East Liverpool and Harry G. Barth of Wellsville entertained the C.C.C. Boys at Bear Canyon, Calif., with oldtime cowboy songs, yodeling and harmonica selections.

High School hired six new teachers, adjusted the salaries of bus drivers, and acted on various requests.

New instructors hired are Floyd Butler Jr., social studies and language arts at New Cumberland Junior High School; Mrs. Patricia Carpenter, Mrs. Elaine Greenburg and Mrs. Helen Woods, Weir Junior High; Miss Cora Wickline, special education class at Wells Junior High in Newell, and Mrs. Stella Ward, elementary at Chester Intermediate.

The board received the resignation of Mrs. Barbara Dofka, who had been on leave of absence.

Salaries of bus drivers were adjusted. They will receive $2 an hour for any work beyond the regular five-hour day, and $2.80 an hour for evening work other than that classified as extra-curricular.

A revision in the elementary report cards worked out by a teachers' committee was also approved.

The board instructed William Kellam, architect, to write a change order adding three feet of topsoil to each side of all sidewalks and driveways at the new plans to protect them in winter weather, and also to add a curb and two catch basins at the Weir High bus drive on that site for the same purpose.

Pending an investigation into the legal aspects, the board decided to provide use of Weir Municipal Stadium to all Hancock County schools — including Weirton Madonna — at no charge.

Mrs. Thelma Daugherty was authorized to attend the Classroom Teachers Association convention Oct. 31-Nov. 1 at White Sulphur Springs. She teaches in Weirton.

A request for the Weir High varsity band to participate in the Steubenville Christmas parade Dec. 7 was tabled until the board receives additional information on the event.

Use of the Weirton auditorium was granted to the Morning Star Baptist Church for a choir performance providing the group obtains the necessary insurance. Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, presided. The meeting lasted about three hours and there was some time spent in answering questions from visitors.

Cattle Breeder Cited

LISBON — Anthony Edgerton of Columbiana, Central Ohio Breeding Association technician for Eastern Columbiana County, has received a certificate for having bred more than 10,000 cows by artificial insemination. The award was made at the recent COBA technicians' conference at Columbus.

Firemen See 3 Coat Types At Calcutta

Three types of coats were displayed at a meeting of the Calcutta volunteer fire department Monday night.

The department, now equipped with a new fire truck, plans also to purchase new coats. The three types were in seven colors and with lettering on the backs spelling out the name of the department.

Purchase was authorized of a new CO-2 fire extinguisher and a new "Indian fire-fighter," the latter a portable "back tank" of five-gallon capacity used primarily for combatting grass and brush fires.

Firemen reminded residents that fire permits are required for all outdoor burning starting Oct. 1. The permits can be obtained from the various local fire wardens. The new truck was summoned to a brush fire Monday afternoon. Burning papers scattered by the wind was the cause, and firemen pointed out care should be exercised to enclose such materials and wet down the area before burning.

Plans were made to attend the fire school at Crucible Steel Co. in Midland Oct. 5 where advanced methods of fire-fighting will be demonstrated. A list of those planning to attend will be prepared at the next meeting Monday night.

Training on operation of the new truck will continue by Chief Laverne Seckman in small groups of three each night at 6 at the fire hall. The department's fund drive for operation and maintenance is now under way.

BPW Committee To Give Awards

Plans were made to present awards to members with perfect attendance at Business and Professional Women's Club meetings when the membership committee met Monday night at The Review conference room.

Special awards also will be given at each meeting for individuals in various categories.

Basic plans were discussed for the April meeting at which the membership committee will be in charge.

Applications for new members were approved and will be available at the October meeting of the club.

Miss Roberta Pennybaker, chairman, presided. Next meeting will be in November.

Lisbon And Salem

Men Held In Burglary

A Lisbon man and another from Salem were bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury Monday by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine on a charge of breaking and entering the Super 30 Drive-In Theater north of East Liverpool Saturday.

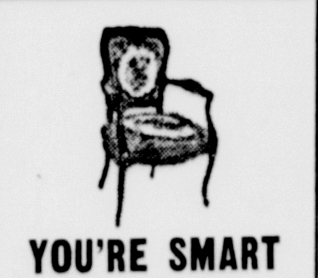

Edwin B. Groff, 330 N. Market St., Lisbon, and Lawrence B. Allison of Salem pleaded guilty to the charge of breaking and entering in the night season.

Bond was set at $1,500 for Groff and $1,000 for Allison.

Women Teachers Get No Special Attention

EAST WINDSOR, Conn. (AP) — Women teachers got no special consideration at a board of education meeting here recently.

A special committee of the board announced a stringent behavior program for students. Among other things, the committee said: "We believe that pupils should respond with 'Yes, sir,' or 'No, sir,' when addressed by a teacher."

count involving about $5,000 and the first six months of 1961.

The defense case consisted solely of testimony of 11 character witnesses, including two who testified as state's witnesses.

Prosecutor Tarr called eight witnesses, including Britton, whose investigation uncovered the alleged shortage in office records. The auditor said transfer checks of $45,000 and $50,000 "inflated the amount of county deposits" on record in the Peoples Bank and the Bank of Weirton. Atty. Ed Flowers of New Cumberland and Atty. John Garden of Wheeling, defense counsel questioned the 11 character witnesses summoned between 1:30 and 2:30 yesterday afternoon.

Two testified early as state's witnesses, including Clayton H. Hobbs of Chester, former county sheriff, and David N. Thomas, vice president of the Bank of Weirton.

Another defense witness was a familiar figure to Courthouse personnel observing the trial — Atty. J. Harold Brennan of Wheeling, who was 1st Judicial Circuit judge in Hancock, Brooke and Ohio Counties for 36 years until 1961.

Other witnesses of the defense were Paul A. Wern of Pughtown, a neighbor of the defendant; James E. Elliott of Chester, executive vice president of the Hancock County Federal Savings & Loan Association; Atty. James A. Jordan of Chester and Atty. J. Clarence Spitznogle of Weirton, local lawyers.

Dale K. Allison of Chester, insurance and real estate agent; Mrs. Ora McKenzie, former employee of the assessor's office; Edward Suplee of Weirton, former county assessor, and the Rev. William H. Flurkey, pastor of the Pughtown Presbyterian Church.

Orange and onion salad is great with roast chicken, turkey or duck. Serve the fruit and vegetable combination (sliced thin) on mixed greens and top with ripe olives, pimiento or capers. At the table mix the salad with French dressing, salt (if needed) and freshly-ground pepper.

Club At Oak Glen Will Feed Team

The Oak Glen Boosters Club voted to serve sandwiches and milk to members of the football team after each home game at a meeting Monday night at Wells School at Newell.

Jack Watson, president, presided. The club voted to reduce the price of parking at the field to 25 cents after having raised the fee previously. It was reported 1,600 bleacher seats have been obtained, raising the total seating capacity to 3,000.

Films of the Weirton Madonna-Oak Glen game were screened by Bob Starkey, and Vince Monseu, coaches.

The club will meet again Monday night at 7:30 at the Newell school.

The first 15 cities in the U. S., in order of population, are New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Detroit, Baltimore, Houston, Cleveland, Washington, St. Louis, San Francisco, Milwaukee, Boston, Dallas, and New Orleans.

Weirton Steel Shuts Down Blast Furnace

WEIRTON — After seven years and five months of continuous operation during which it produced 4,280,000 tons of pig iron, the No. 3 blast furnace at the Weirton Steel Co. will be shut down for relining and other work on Friday.

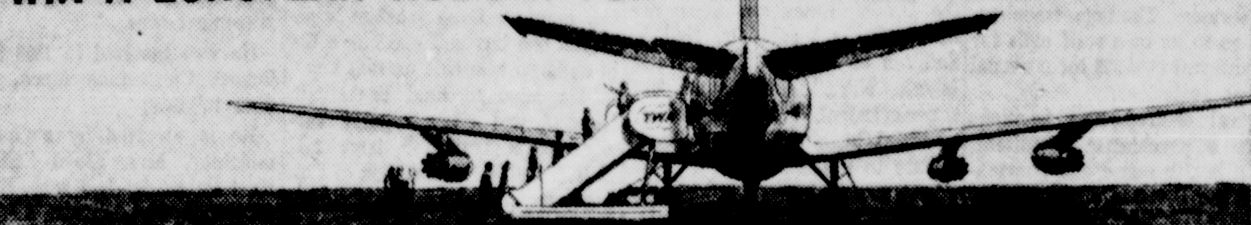

The project will include installation of new burners and checkers on the furnace's three stoves, semi-automatic stove changing equipment and new downcomers and a new variable orifice for the gas scrubber. This unit quenches dust-laden air coming from the furnace with water sprays to precipitate the dust and leave a clean gas which is used in other plant operations.

Health Fund Boosted In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP)—The West Virginia Mental Health Department is ready to push for an increase of $2.5 million in the operating budgets of the six West Virginia mental institutions, plus almost $5.5 million for new buildings and other capital improvements.

The state mental health director, Dr. Mildred Mitchell - Bateman, and her staff have drawn up operating budget requests for the fiscal year starting next July 1 which total $9,980,000 for the six institutions administered by the department.

The institutions are Huntington, Weston, Spencer, Barboursville and Lakin state hospitals and the West Virginia Training School at St. Marys, a facility for mentally-retarded children.

The budget proposals were submitted to State Finance Commissioner Truman E. Gore as the first step toward legislative consideration in January and February.

The department is seeking to gear its program to meet demands for increased community-level services. The department request as to its own staff calls for an additional $144,556 for personal services (salaries).

Several desired new positions include a psychiatric consultant, mental health nurse and pharmacist in the Division of Professional Services; and two psychologists and three mental health consultants for community services work.

The department also is seeking About $30,000 for positions which would enable it to set up a day-care center in Charleston, on a pilot basis, for severely retarded children. Similar funds also were sought a year ago, but there's new community sentiment now.

Some $20,000 to go with a $30,000 federal grant and make a new planning division a reality.

A $50,000 appropriation, double that for this year, to enable a new alcoholism division set up by the 1963 legislature to begin rendering some treatment, educational and other services. It still is in an organizational state.

Another $50,000, again double a current appropriation, for a research and training fund, with new money particularly desired for studies of the aged in mental hospitals, and of mentally retarded adults.

A new $30,000 appropriation for "after-care medication" necessary for the continued treatment and well-being of the mentally ill after they are discharged from state institutions.

Department spokesmen frankly concede that, for at least several years to come, mental hospital costs as well as those for the new community approach will continue to grow.

Marital Fighting Seen Prelude To Military Service

A young husband who faced Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today on an assault and battery charge told the court his wife wished to dismiss the affidavit and he intended to enlist for military service.

"You've certainly had enough experience fighting with your wife," the judge commented acidly to Thomas Hoschar, 211 Beechwood Ave., but he agreed to a motion to dismiss the assault charge.

Hoschar was named in an affidavit signed by Mrs. Carolyn Hoschar, alleging he struck her Sept. 14. The case originally was before the judge last Wednesday, when it was continued until today.

Judge Chertoff told Mrs. Hoschar he will not agree so readily again to dismissal of such a charge against her husband. He warned the husband he will go to the County Jail if he returns to court on such a charge in the future.

Meanwhile, the judge granted a continuance until Oct. 25 in the case of Charles Nortrup, 1076 Mapletree St., accused of assault and battery Saturday on Jean Nortrup, 163 Thompson Ave. Atty. Robert A. Kapp, counsel for the man, asked the continuance pending the appearance of both parties before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon.

Planters Of Bombs Get Long Pen Terms

MADRID, SPAIN (AP)—A military court has given long prison terms to two Spaniards who confessed they returned to their homeland from France to plant bombs, official sources reported today.

The sources said the court which tried the men Monday sentenced Juan Salcedo Martin, 27, a sculptor, to 60 years imprisonment and Manuel Borrego Lopez, 34, a bricklayer with six children, to 25 years.

Both admitted in court they were paid agents of the anti-Franco Iberian Anarchists Federation.

Learning Again

4-Year Virginia 'Vacation' Ends

FARMVILLE, Va. (AP)—Ernest Pratt studied the sign by his feet, then softly read out "floor." He looked toward the front of the room at another sign and read "wall."

Around the room in the small brick building were other signs, "door," "window" and "chair." Ernest could read most of the words, admittedly not much of an accomplishment for an 8-year-old. For Ernest, though, it was the beginning of the new world of learning he entered only one week ago.

Ernest and 1,501 other children are enrolled in the privately financed and gradeless schools operated by the Prince Edward Free School Association. When the doors opened last Monday, it was the first time in four years that free education was available to all children in this southside Virginia County.

"The week was as smooth as could be expected when you bring a faculty together from all over the United States and there are no textbooks," said Dr. Neil V. Sullivan of East Williston, Long Island, N.Y., the free schools' superintendent. "The fact that we survived at all is a tremendous tribute to the teachers."

With children who had not been subjected to classroom discipline for four years, or perhaps never in their 11 years, the transition from an unregulated environment could have been difficult. But Sullivan said that except for "one minor incident on a school bus, there have been no disciplinary problems. Decorum has been excellent."

Since 1959, when the Prince Edward Board of Supervisors closed public schools rather than submit to a federal court order to desegregate, Negro children had no access to free education in the county. White children have paid tuition to attend private, segregated schools.

Four white children also have entered the new schools. They are Letitia Tew, 7; Richard Moss, 17, and a brother and sister, Brenda Abernathy, 15, and George Abernathy, 7.

"There are still children, both white and colored, who are not in any school," Sullivan said. "Our bus drivers have reported to us the homes where they have seen children. We will visit these homes and try to get the children enrolled."

Letitia could print her name before she entered the old Worsham school, but many of the other children there, like Ernest Pratt, had never been exposed to reading or writing.

Both Sullivan and James Wiggins, Worsham principal, agreed that the major problem has been one of adjustment.

"Many of the children had not been away from home in four years," Sullivan said. "Just being away from mother for the mornings only was a major adjustment they had to make."

"Crying, and getting the children on the right buses are our major concerns right now," said Mrs. Sullivan. "Some of them hardly know their own names, and they can't remember their bus number. Each teacher is assigned one bus and she has a list of children who ride on that bus."

"We hope to field basketball, baseball and other regular varsity sports both for boys and girls," said W. E. Johnson of Chicago, the high school athletic director. "We also want to have a strong intramural program, and some gymnastics with the equipment we have and what ever else we can get."

Gary Saunders, a 1962 graduate of West Virginia University, will coach the basketball team.

The ungraded system is designed to move children ahead as fast as their abilities allow. An innovation in Virginia, it will be closely watched by educators, particularly since four schoolless years provide a unique laboratory. Sullivan, an expert in the ungraded system, is not unmindful of the attention the schools will receive, but he makes it clear he believes the primary duty is to teach the children as much as possible in the one year the free schools will operate.

"There never has been a school like this before," he said, "and I hope there never will be again."

William Thompson Retained As Hookstown Grange Head

William Thompson was re-elected master of the Hookstown Grange Thursday night at the Grange Hall.

Others named were John Seagrath, overseer; Mrs. Lawrence Seagrath, lecturer; Charles Stewart, steward; Donald McElhaney, assistant steward; Mrs. Richard Floyd, chaplain; John Thompson, treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Seagrath, secretary.

Everett Maki, gatekeeper; Mrs. Bernard Glenn, Ceres; Mrs. Thomas Glenn, Pomona; Mrs. Chester Elliott, Flore, and Miss Sara Stolkovich, lady assistant steward.

Charles Hartzell was named to the executive committee and Raymond Seagrath to the finance committee, both for three-year terms. Mrs. Charles Hartzell was named Juvenile Grange matron, and Mrs. Leland Floyd as assistant. Mrs. Maki was appointed as pianist.

Mrs. Lawrence Seagrath presented a brief case for the best traveling programs and Mrs. Charles Stewart accepted a blue ribbon for the home economics report. Announcement was made that the Grange received an honorable mention for its community service report to the state. These were made at the meeting of the Beaver County Pomona Grange the previous week and presented Thursday evening.

The tour will start from Center Township High School and include the Shippingport atomic plant, the Elliott poultry farm and a dinner and program at the Hookstown Grange.

Speaker for the dinner will be Dr. James Copp, associate professor of rural sociology at Penn State University. Guests will include the Rev. and Mrs. Milo Smith of the Free Methodist Church, and the Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Wilson of the Mill Creek United Presbyterian Church, both of Hookstown.

Program was "What Is the Grange?", with roll call on the preferred type of program. Mrs. Lawrence Seagrath, lecturer, was in charge.

Lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart. Next meeting is Oct. 3, at 8 p.m. at the Grange Hall.

School Patrol Boys To Meet Wednesday

Over 100 school patrol members from East Liverpool, Chester, Newell and Wellsville are expected to attend the annual patrol meeting Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Westgate School.

The youngsters will be photographed, fingerprinted and given identification cards and will hear a talk on school patrol responsibilities by a State Highway Patrol representative.

A color film, "The Best Way to School," will be screened.

The program is sponsored jointly by the Columbiana County Motor Club and the safety committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Greece Orders Ban On Shipping To Cuba

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—The Greek government today ordered Greek ships to cease carrying cargo to or from Cuba.

An earlier decree had prohibited only the transport of cargo to Cuba.

More riding horses are stabled in suburban surroundings in the United States than are found on the western ranges of this country.

Deaths and Funerals

Death Claims Ex-Potter, 92

EAST PALESTINE — Henry C. Ashbaugh, 92, a retired potter and former merchant, died this morning at 2:40 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. K. E. Rukenbrod of 45 W. Clark St., with whom he resided.

In failing health for a number of years, he had been seriously ill two weeks.

He was born in Leetonia Dec. 25, 1870, to Oliver Ashbaugh and Sarah Jackson Ashbaugh and the family moved to East Liverpool in 1875 where he attended elementary school and later began work in a pottery.

He came to East Palestine in 1897 as an employee of the Ohio China Co., and later worked at the W. S. George Co. pottery for 50 years as a caster.

In 1915-25 he operated a grocery store on Park Ave. and organized the city's first relief agency. He was a member of the Centenary Methodist Church for 60 years, serving as Sunday School superintendent and teacher and as a lay leader.

He was also a member of the IBOP, serving as an official delegate twice, and belonged to the Masonic Lodge.

He was married in 1898 to the former Clementine Meek, who died in 1930.

He is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Seiter of East Palestine; two sons, Russell Ashbaugh and Warren Ashbaugh of East Palestine, and 13 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the Van Dyke Funeral Home by the Rev. Thomas Hammerton. Burial will be in Glenview Cemetery.

Friends may call Wednesday night at the funeral home.

Elmer F. Potts

Elmer F. Potts, 76, of Coraopolis, a retired farmer, died Sunday evening at the Sewickley Valley Hospital, after a brief illness.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Potts of Moon Township, near Coraopolis; a son, Gerald Potts; three brothers, Arthur Potts of Leetsdale, Samuel Potts of Chester and Charles Potts of Beaver, and a sister, Mrs. Ora Gray of Butler.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Cannon Funeral Home in Midland by the Rev. David Rainey of Beaver. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Hanover Township.

Friends may call at the funeral home.

Emmett Johnson

Emmett Johnson, 729 E. 4th St., a driver for YELP Service, Inc., for 34 years, died suddenly Monday at 1:30 p.m. at his home. He was 63. He was pronounced dead on arrival at City Hospital.

Born Sept. 4, 1900, in Meigs County to the late Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, he had resided in East Liverpool for 54 years. He was a member of the First Church of Christ.

Mr. Johnson is survived by his widow, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, two sons, John L. Johnson and Harold R. Johnson; two step-sons, William Anthony and Ted Davis; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Ann Biro; a sister, Mrs. Bessie Horton, all of East Liverpool, and 10 grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by John N. Mostoller, minister. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call Wednesday at the funeral home.

Steubenville GOP Expects 650 At Dinner

STEUBENVILLE — A crowd of between 600 and 650 is expected at the fund-raising dinner of the Ohio Republican Finance Committee Thursday night at 7 in the Steubenville Community Arena, local chairmen said today.

William E. Miller of Olcott, N. Y., Republican national chairman, will be guest speaker at the affair of the Upper Ohio Valley Republicans.

Others on the program will be Gov. James A. Rhodes, Courtney Burton, Republican national finance chairman, and R. Livingston Ireland of the Ohio GOP Finance Committee.

H. Nelson Lang and Atty. Clyde Chalfant are co-chairman of the $50-a-plate dinner. Officials said it will be the major GOP fund-raising event of 1963 for Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison and Jefferson Counties, making up the 18th Congressional District.

Under Civil Service

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—Council has placed all city employees under civil service. The action Monday night applies to 180 employees formerly not under civil service. Previously, only police and firemen were civil service employees.

County 8 And 40 Conducts Annual Induction At Lisbon

The Columbiana County 8 and 40 Salon held its annual officers' installation and dinner party Saturday evening at the American Legion Home at Lisbon. Husbands were guests.

Mrs. Mathilda Miller of Salem, past president, was installing officer.

Mrs. Lawrence Sanders of Salem succeeds Mrs. Clarence Ball of Lisbon as president.

Also installed were Mrs. Debra Hollinger, vice president; Mrs. Renee Seckler, second vice president; Mrs. Russell Huston, secretary-treasurer; all of Salem; Mrs. Alice Bye of Damascus, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Anna Gruber of Lisbon, chaplain; Mrs. Francis Cusick of East Liverpool, historian, and Mrs. Ball, junior past president.

"Americanism" was the subject of Mrs. Lester Nimmon of Canton, guest speaker. Her husband attended.

Mrs. Chris Perrott of Salem, guest soloist, sang several selections, accompanied by Mrs. Gwendolyn Galatin of East Palestine.

Next meeting is Oct. 3 at the home of Mrs. Sanders of Salem.

Mrs. Annetta Courtney, president of the Lisbon Business and Professional Women's Club and Mrs. Elaine Griffith, vice president, attended a district BPW meeting, Sunday at Roosevelt High School in Kent.

Representing Districts 5, 6, 7 and 8, there were 243 present for the all-day meeting, with Miss Elmira Hannaford, vice president of the Ohio BPW, attending.

The double-four club met Saturday evening with Mrs. Frank Flanagan of W. Lincoln Way. Mrs. Robert Stock was a guest.

Prizes for 500 were awarded Mrs. Randall Forbes and Mrs. Stock.

Hostess for the meeting Oct. 5 will be Mrs. A. E. Christopher of Vine St.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Weinstock of Franklin Square Rd. returned home Sunday after vacationing two weeks at Ely, Minn.

Mrs. Nannie McKee of N. Beaver St. was visited Sunday by her grandson Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ritchard and children, Sherry, Steve, Karen Sue and Corene, of Alliance.

Sanford and Glenn Cross of Wadestown, Pa., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cross of S. Lincoln Ave.

Stroke Proves Fatal

MONTREAL (AP)—William (Billy) Eckstein, 75, an early vaudeville piano prodigy, song writer and popular Montreal nightclub entertainer, died Monday of a stroke.

Europe Mart Offers U.S. Poultry Duty

BRUSSELS (AP)—The European Common Market offered the United States a small cut in its tariff on U.S. poultry today but demanded that Americans abandon the idea of further negotiations on the issue.

The demand made double certain that the United States would reject the offer to trim 1.3 cents from the 13.43 cents-a-pound duty, a 10 per cent cut in a tariff the Common Market raised 180 per cent last year.

The United States was expected to press for negotiation of the dispute by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the 45-nation international trade organization.

It took the foreign ministers of the six market nations—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—only 20 minutes to reach a unanimous decision.

Christian A. Herter, President Kennedy's chief negotiator here, had said earlier the 1.3-cent reduction was inadequate.

Driver Fined On Old Ticket

An area man was fined $26 and costs Monday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a 16-month-old affidavit alleging he failed to settle a parking ticket issued two years ago.

Russell W. Carnes, who formerly resided on W. 2nd St. but whose present address is listed as General Delivery, also was fined $10 and costs on a charge of using indecent and profane language.

Carnes was charged formally by Mrs. Catherine Martin, a city "Meter Maid", with failing to pay a parking ticket issued Sept. 20, 1961, on E. 6th St.

Eight other unpaid parking tickets were attached to the affidavit filed May 3, 1962.

Carnes was taken into custody at 10:09 p. m. Saturday on Market St. by police when the profane language charge was filed. Judge Chertoff suspended the $10 fine on that charge on payment of costs.

Another city man was fined and a Wellsville man forfeited a bond on speeding charges filed as the aftermath of a radar check.

James Lowe of Gilson Ave. was fined $10 and costs on a charge of speeding 35 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone on St. George St. Thursday afternoon.

Eugene McCarty, 2009 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, forfeited $17.50. He was cited last Tuesday in a radar check on W. 8th St.

Douce Of Marion Elected Head Of Ohio's Realtors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Lowell Douce, president and general manager of Douce & Co., Inc., of Marion, has been elected 1964 president of the 11,000-member Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards.

Other officers elected Monday at the association's 54th annual convention were George E. Moor, Toledo, first vice president, and Ralph F. Yeager, Cincinnati, treasurer.

District vice presidents elected were Deane M. Corbett, Youngstown; Edward J. Grindler, Akron; Walter H. Kumm, Galion; Moor, Toledo; Charles W. Cavanaugh, Dayton, and Elmer F. Jones, Athens.

Leroy Parsons of Columbus was named executive vice president of the association for the 18th year.

Dayton realtor J. A. Sweetman was named president of the Ohio chapter of the International Traders Club, meeting in conjunction with the association's convention. He succeeds Gerald Downing of Lima.

Albert Mayer III, Cincinnati, became a member of the association's executive committee by virtue of his election as chairman of the Associate Division, a real estate salesmen's organization.

Nursery Schools Defy Ruling About Prayer

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A pre-snack grace for nursery school children will continue despite a county counsel ruling that it is illegal, the Long Beach Board of Education says.

The board voted unanimously Monday to continue the prayer after the county counsel said the practice violates U.S. Supreme Court decisions making similar school prayers illegal.

The board said it would receive and file the opinion.

The prayer, recited before the mid-morning snack at eight Long Beach nursery schools, goes:

"God is good, God is great; We thank you for the food 'On our plate.'"

2 Companies Report Higher Sales, Profits

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two locally based companies, one a chemicals manufacturer and the other a maker of various kinds of military hardware, report higher sales and profits so far in 1963 than those of the similar 1962 period.

Avco Corp., the defense industry, said Monday its sales for the first nine months of 1963 were $381,342,360, compared with $288,408,388 in 1962. Profits rose from $12,390,933 to $18,515,770.

Dubus Chemicals, Inc., said its sales for the six months ending Aug. 31 were $20,500,000 or 7.1 per cent higher than in the same 1962 period. Its earnings were $1,803,000, up from $1,507,000.

Bolton Gives Reason Soviet Forces In Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Oliver P. Bolton, R-Ohio, says one of the reasons the Soviet Union refuses to remove its forces from Cuba could be that country's interest in an advance base for its growing submarine fleet.

"We sometimes forget that the Soviet Union has well over 400 submarines in service, compared to about 175 for the United States," Bolton said in a statement.

He added that no major port operations are required to provide bases and other aid in Cuba for Soviet submarines operating in the Atlantic.

Kennedy To Dedicate Dam In California

REDDING, Calif. (AP)—President Kennedy dedicates this Saturday the Whiskeytown Dam which will provide hot and cold running water for spawning salmon.

This is the first dam designed by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation providing such service.

Salmon like water of 55 degrees Fahrenheit for spawning. But water behind the dam can vary from 30 to 40 degrees from the surface to the bottom.

So Whiskeytown Dam, near Redding, will have built-in control gates at two levels. Water from each outlet can be mixed to provide just the right temperature for the fish.

Young Ohio Pilot, 27, Killed In Plane Crash

GANDER, Nfld. (AP)—A young pilot from North Jackson near Youngstown, Ohio, was killed in the crash of his twin-engine plane Monday.

He was identified as Frank Peterchek, 27, lone pilot in one of three planes being flown to Shannon, Ireland. His plane reportedly spun in from about 500 feet, right after takeoff.

2 Burglaries Probed

LISBON — Sheriff's deputies are investigating two minor burglary cases reported over the weekend. Ray Hays of Highlandtown told the sheriff's office intruders broke into the abandoned home of DeWitt Hays, near Highlandtown and stole two coal stoves valued at $80. Floyd Cox of Campground Rd., Wellsville, said intruders broke into his cabin at Stouffer's Lake, near Leetonia, and took a transistor radio and an electric clock worth $100.

Youth Denied New Hearing

A motion for a new trial for a 19-year-old city youth, accused of the theft of an East End man's auto, was overruled Monday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff following a lengthy hearing.

As a result of a hearing, Philip Eugene Smith, 1424 Dresden Ave., remains bound over to the Grand Jury under a $1,000 bond.

Smith was held for the Grand Jury after a lengthy hearing Sept. 10 but his counsel, Atty. George Aronson, filed a motion for a new trial, claiming newly-discovered evidence would substantiate the defendant's innocence.

He and a city youth were taken into custody on Harvey Ave. early on Sept. 3 by Patrolmen Paul A. Burson Jr. and David K. Mumaw, about 45 minutes after two persons abandoned the moving car of Gilford Burdick, 420 Wedgewood St., on Pennsylvania Ave., allowing it to strike the building occupied by the Duquesne Distributing Co., 1243 Pennsylvania Ave.

Smith pleaded innocent to the charge filed by Police Lt. W. E. McDaniel.

The hearing on the new trial motion started last Wednesday but was continued until Friday to permit the appearance of Patrolman Burson. However, a new continuance was granted until yesterday.

75 Attend 'Constitution Day' Observance Of K. Of C. Unit

About 75 attended the annual Constitution Day dinner of Cardinal Mercier Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, Sunday evening in the fire hall in New Waterford. Guests included wives and friends of members.

The guest speaker was Fr. Bonaventure Pabik, O.F.M. superior of St. Mary's Friar of the Franciscan Brothers Seminary, located between Columbiana and North Lima.

He spoke on the Ecumenical Council's second session in Rome, which is expected to impress on Christians man's responsibilities to God as well as to his neighbors. He also talked on the current racial situation.

James McGowan of East Liverpool was toastmaster and Francis J. Schlieter of Negley, faithful navigator, presided. The invocation was given by Fr. Joseph Heid, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church in East Palestine, who also is dean of Columbiana County Deanery of the Youngstown Diocese.

The benediction was given by Fr. Eugene Jacobs, pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in Chester.

Other guests included Fr. Frederick Anzivino, pastor of St. John's Church in Summitville; Stephen Vano of Youngstown, Eastern Ohio District master of the Fourth Degree, and John Johnson of East Liverpool, former district master.

Vano spoke briefly and announced that the Eastern Ohio district exemplification will be held April 16-17 at Canton. A banquet will be featured April 17 at the One's Hotel.

The date of the October meeting will be announced later.

Dinner was prepared and served by the auxiliary of the New Waterford volunteer fire department.

'Fly Free' Date Listed

LISBON — Another reminder was issued today that the "fly free date" for Hessian flies in Columbiana County is Thursday and if wheat is planted on or after that date the field will be free from damage by the flies. Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, issued the reminder.

People In News

WASHINGTON (AP)—The widow of Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., says she will not run for the Senate because "I am not trained or qualified for public office."

Mrs. Nancy Kefauver had been mentioned as a candidate for the seat vacated by her husband, but she said in Washington, "I will definitely not be a candidate for the U.S. Senate."

NEW YORK (AP)—It's another boy for John Daly, moderator of television's "What's My Line," and his wife, Virginia.

Mrs. Daly, daughter of U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren, gave birth to a 6-pound, 10-ounce boy at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital.

The Dalys also have an 11-month-old son.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Dr. H.H. Kung, former premier of Nationalist China, observed his 84th birthday today.

Kung, a brother-in-law of Madame Chiang Kai-shek wife of the Chinese Nationalist president, came to Formosa last year from the United States.

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Former Premier Yo-Chan (Tiger) Song began his campaign for president of South Korea today—from a cell in a Seoul jail.

Song tape recorded a campaign speech. His supporters will broadcast it in a nationwide drive for votes before the Oct. 15 election.

The 45-year-old hero of the Korean War is awaiting trial on a charge of illegally executing three soldiers during the war. He also is charged with slandering the government of strongman Chung Hee Park, an opponent in the presidential race.

VIENNA (AP)—Radio Prague reports the appointment of Michal Chudik, a member of the Slovak Communist party's Politbureau, as chairman of the Slovak National Council. He succeeds Josef Lenart, who has been named premier of Czechoslovakia in a shake-up that ousted Stalinist officials.

3 Youths Are Indicted In Attack On Couple

CLEVELAND (AP)—Three of six youths accused of attacking a teen-age couple in the Sowinski playground on the East Side last June have been indicted by the Cuyahoga County grand jury.

The other three were found delinquent at a hearing before Juvenile Court Judge Albert A. Wolman in August and were sentenced to the Boy's Industrial School at Lancaster.

Indicted Monday were Jerome Martin and Charles Clark, both 16, and Robert Gould, 17. They were charged with rape, assault on rape, stabbing, assault with a deadly weapon and aggravated assault against the 15-year-old girl and aggravated assault against Thomas A. Giffin, 18.

Defendant In Assault Is Sued For $15,000

LISBON — A suit for $15,000 for assault and battery was filed in Common Pleas Court Monday by Martha L. Lafferty of Salineville R. D. 3 against Mark Martin of Salineville R. D. 2.

Mrs. Lafferty claims in her petition she was assaulted by the defendant Aug. 31 near her store in Salineville, then dragged inside. She also asked that the court restrain him from trespassing in the store.

The defendant was bound over to Grand Jury last week.

She required hospital treatment.

Ex-Sports Editor Dies

DETROIT (AP) — Harry De Lue, former executive sports editor of the Detroit News, died Monday. De Lue ended a 30-year career with the News when he retired in 1960.

U.S.-Moscow Air Route Is Eyed In Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

—A New York-Moscow commercial air route is one of three items on which Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko may be able to reach quick agreement in talks this week.

Official U.S. sources also foresee possible agreements on building new embassies in Moscow and Washington, and allowing the U.S. Embassy in Moscow to have a private communications link with a U.S. post in Western Europe to speed its dispatches.

Bigger East-West questions which Rusk, Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home are to explore this week are expected to take much more time.

These include such follow-ups to the limited nuclear test ban as exchanging observers to guard against surprise attack and an East-West nonaggression pact. U.S. sources said further consultations among the Western Allies are required before they can agree on the position to take toward such proposals.

In August 1961, U.S. negotiators initiated an agreement for a direct U.S.-Soviet air link but refused to sign it because of Soviet pressure then on West Berlin.

A spokesman for Pan American Airways, the U.S. airline slated to fly the Moscow route if the deal goes through, said today, "We are still ready and willing to fly."

Rusk scheduled another day of talks with foreign leaders attending the fall session of the U.N. General Assembly. He had an important morning appointment with Indonesia's Foreign Minister Subandrio. Indonesia has incurred U.S. displeasure with its hostility toward new-born Malaysia and the sacking of the British Embassy in Jakarta. Washington is reviewing its Indonesian aid program.

Board Opens Hearings On Rail Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — Public hearings on the railroad work rules dispute begin today before an arbitration board armed by Congress with power to write a binding settlement of the two chief issues.

The seven-man board headed by arbitrator Ralph T. Seward is expected to sit for four hours daily for the next six weeks, taking testimony from the nation's railroads and their five train-operating unions.

The issues under arbitration are those which for 4½ years have repeatedly threatened to precipitate an economy-crippling strike—whether 32,000 locomotive firemen should be laid off, and whether the size of freight train crews can safely be cut.

Bargaining on other issues will proceed concurrently. After each day's hearing the parties will go into closed session on seven subsidiary issues exempted by Congress from the arbitration process.

If these side negotiations fail, the threat of a strike could be renewed next spring despite the government-imposed arbitration of the major issues.

Congress gave the arbitration panel 30 days to get hearings on the work rules stalemate started, 60 more days to reach a solution, and another 60 days to bring its decision into force.

Accidental Shooting Fatal To Youth, 11

BRIDGEPORT, Ohio (AP) — John Davis, 11, was shot accidentally near his parents' home here Monday night and died later in a Martins Ferry hospital.

Police said the youth suffered a shotgun wound in the abdomen from a weapon being handled by a 17-year-old boy. The second youth was hospitalized for treatment of shock, officers said.

Employees Buy Firm

CINCINNATI (AP) — The J. E. Fay & Egan Co., which makes woodworking machines, has been bought by a group of its employees in a $1 million plus transaction. The employee group, headed by General Manager Edward R. Gabriel, bought Fay & Egan and two subsidiaries Monday from Mrs. Margaret C. Link.

Hunt Tall Gunman

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police were looking for a tall gunman—perhaps 6-foot-6 — who robbed the Thriftway Super Market in suburban Reading of about $3,000 Monday night.

Often, when a spur-of-the-moment question arises, there's nothing quite as handy as a public telephone.

A call from daughter to home, for instance, provides an infinite measure of thoughtful reassurance to her family. They're glad to hear she's having fun and that she has taken the time to tell them about it.

Public phones are nearby—almost any place you happen to be. So convenient, fast and easy.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Murder And Champagne

HOLLYWOOD of the familiar about them. Spelling offered some examples:

"I prefer this sprawling about in a chauffeur-driven Rolls Royce to riding off on the next stage coach."

So spoke Gene Barry, late of the "Bat Master-son" series and now playing millionaire detective Amos Burke in the new ABC-TV series, "Burke's Law."

"I'm in love with the character, an affaire de cour. He's everything a lot of fellas want to be," Barry went on contentedly, as he relaxed in his dressing room.

"I'm a bon vivant, a pixie, well educated, intelligent, rich, witty and extremely successful with women. The champagne consumption is high on this show. Chateau Frontenac '57. And I'll get to sing and dance on occasion."

"EACH SHOW opens with a party at my place. Music, Champagne. Then the phone rings. A killing. We're off and running."

"You see, what we're doing is the kind of high-style comedy that filled the movie screens in the late '30s and '40s. Cary Grant, William Powell, 'The Thin Man.'"

Each episode of "Burke's Law" will be rather ostentatious in its use of guest stars. There will be at least five resplendent cameo roles each week, often seven. And the opening featured no less than 11 VIP's, from Suzy Parker to Sir Cedric Hardwicke.

IS THE PRODUCER, Aaron Spelling, a master at the art of cajoling actors to work for next to nothing?

"I wouldn't say that," said Mr. Spelling over a family-sized pineapple punch in an indoor jungle called the Tahitian Restaurant.

"Just say I cry easily."

"On 'The Dick Powell Show,' which I produced and on which I started the cameo business, I paid what I could. When I had $10,000, I didn't offer $8,000. At first, it was hard to get name performers for cameo roles. Now it's easy. I guess we're all sheep out here."

He ducked his head and smiled. "But we do right by our guests. We do a good deal of rewriting. Once we cast the stars, we go off to my place and tailor the parts to the actors."

A FUTURE GUEST, by the way, will be Carolyn Jones, playing four sisters. Miss Jones also is known as Mrs. Spelling.

"She'd get an Emmy for it for sure," said her husband, "if this were called 'The du Pont Show.'"

Not only will the minor roles be recognizable, however. Even the victims, killed off before the programs start, will have a ring

"One victim will be a rock 'n' roll singer who's made a lot of movies in a confidant. Or there's a brilliant novelist who attends bull fights in the company of Ava Schwartz."

"We have the millionaire owner of a movie studio who keeps stashes stashed away and wears sneakers and somebody who might be named Lowell Thomas Schwartz, who makes travel films."

"There's a publisher of Debonaire Magazine who runs a string of key clubs featuring young ladies called Debs. We don't pick on poor people on this show."

THE SERIES, Spelling went on, is loaded with sex — "not cheap, but sophisticated."

"The kids won't know what we're talking about, but the adults will. With this air of sophistication, though, we could just bomb. If we make it, we'll make it big. Or we'll be off the air fast."

"How many sophisticates are there in America, anyway? We may miss the small towns completely."

"But remember, these are real whodunits and if you can tell the killer ahead of time in 2 out of 10 shows, I'll be a failure. At the same time, if you see the thing as a murder show or a game of cops and robbers and you don't get the tongue-in-cheek quality, I'll blow my brains out."

He turned to a waiter lurking off in the underbrush.

"Make it a martini this time, will you?" he said, as though issuing a final request before the execution.

Man, 20, Bound Over

For Salineville Entry

LISBON — Floyd M. Walters, 20, of Irondale R. D. 1 was bound over to the Grand Jury Monday by County Judge James L. MacDonald on a charge of burglary of an uninhabited dwelling.

Walters was apprehended early Saturday morning in Salineville by Mayor Stanley Fitch after he allegedly broke into the Lafferty Store on Wilson St.

Mayor Fitch said he saw two men walking toward the store when he was awakened, but Walters claims he was alone.

Walters is in County Jail in lieu of $1,000 bond set by the court.

Three Men Rob Truck Driver Of $10,000

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—Three men took an estimated $10,000 to $15,000 from a truck driver Monday night after forcing him off relocated Ohio 46 about two miles south of here, the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Office reported.

The truck driver, Hiram Laird, 60, of Painesville, said the men had guns and they locked him in the rear of his panel truck and took the money, which he was taking to R. W. Spaulding Co., Meadville, Pa.

Rail Brakemen Hit By Automobile Dies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A railroad brakeman struck by a car while warning motorists of an approaching train last Friday died of his injuries Monday in St. Anthony Hospital.

Police in suburban Whitehall, where the accident occurred, said they expect to file manslaughter charges today against Air Force Capt. David E. Sommers, 28, stationed at Lockbourne Air Force Base, in the death of the brakeman, Raymond A. Zeuschner, 45 of nearby New Rome.

Contributions Total $1.4 Million To OU

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Private contributions to Ohio University amounted to $1,410,470 in the past academic year, President Vernon R. Alden says.

Alden told students and staff Monday that, if Ohio voters approve the $250 million bond issue Nov. 5, the university will give priority to a new library, power plant and engineering-science center. A start also could be made on buildings for three branch campuses and graduate and music centers, Alden said.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Teens Shouldn't Have Charge Accounts

From scattered reports in the public press one gathers that there is a great increase in the number of teenagers, even younger children who have charge accounts at one or more stores. Many who have merchandise to sell welcome this development, for it obviously means more Dr. Garry Meyers sales in the long run. Some merchants may also say that they rarely lose money on such charge accounts as most parents, for self-protection, promptly pay up on arrears rather than face embarrassment.

Indeed, I have heard it said that a youth whose parents are good customers can walk into a store and buy what he or she pleases and have it charged, without the child or the store having to call the parents for their approval.

FOR A FEW youths who have operated well on a budgeted allowance and proved themselves reasonably thrifty and skillful in handling money, a charge account might work well. Yet their paying cash from their own funds would usually be wiser practice in the use of money.

For the average teenager, however, his parents had better not permit a charge account. It often encourages extravagant and irresponsible purchasing by the child.

A growing practice, with economic and character hazards, is that of letting children, even in the early elementary grades, charge things at the candy store near the school, even in the home neighborhood.

The keeper of the store, knowing the parents will make good on any such purchases, may encourage the child to charge things. He considers it good business promotion. He's unconcerned about what happens to the child thus encouraged to buy excessively without feeling personally responsible. How will this child be able to adapt himself well to

Driver Pays $5 Fine; 3 More Forfeit Bond

LISBON — One motorist was fined and three others forfeited in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court Monday.

Newton J. Timbrook, 22, of Minerva R. D. was fined $5 and costs for speeding.

Edward Mitchell, 30, of Canonsburg, Pa., forfeited $20 for crossing a yellow line.

Harold McNeal, 32, of Cambridge and John Tacimin, 45, of Cleveland, each forfeited $15 for speeding. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Mike Sweeney reported on service officers activity.

The annual budget was approved. Refreshments were served by Ed Huff and committee. The post will meet Oct. 13.

Fire Causes Damage To Truck At Chester

About $100 damage was caused to the cab of a stake body truck of Cyrus Hobbs of 3rd St., Chester, when a fire broke out about 8:30 Monday night at the Hobbs Tire Service of 2nd St., Chester.

Sixteen firemen answered the alarm. A cigarette apparently caused the blaze, which damaged the seat and floor of the truck while it was parked at the rear of the firm, firemen said.

Potters Voted To 8th Position In Ohio Football Poll

Niles Leads Way, Alliance In 2nd

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Red Dragons of Niles McKinley, with three straight victories and an unblemished goal line, are making a big bid to climb back on the high school football throne they occupied in 1961.

Coach Tony Mason's power-house pushed its unbeaten streak to 40 Friday with a rousing 46-0 victory over Akron St. Vincent and immediately captured the top spot in the opening Associated Press poll of the campaign.

Niles previously routed Cleveland East Tech 50-0 and Youngstown Cardinal Mooney 46-0 and now boasts a 142-0 scoring edge.

Only 25 sports editors voted in the inaugural poll, and 17 were from the upper half of the state, as Niles wound up a clear-cut winner over Mel Knowlton's Alliance Aviators by a 160-139 margin in the poll point column.

Akron Garfield, winner over many-times champion Massillon a week ago, took third place, followed by Sandusky, Massillon, Warren Harding, Springfield South, East Liverpool, Cincinnati Roger Bacon and Martins Ferry.

From here and there: Alliance was a 46-0 victor over Massillon last year, but the Aviators are expecting tougher going this weekend. Toledo Central Catholic, 1962 champion, appears out of the current race after losing its second straight to Toledo Waite, 7-6, last week.

Toledo Scott came up with a big victory over Toledo Woodward—4-0 on two last-quarter safeties.

Bron Bracevich, who coached the South All-Stars to their third straight triumph in the North-South game at Canton, is mentor of the Roger Bacon club which faces Niles. The Queen City team boasts a 30-6 win over Cincinnati Moeller and a 14-0 verdict over Bishop Luers of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Dayton Roth, unbeaten in two starts, has a 157-pound, 5-foot-7-quarterback named Verbie Walden. He's completed 19 of 28 passes for 326 yards and 4 touchdowns, and scored another himself.

Springfield South gave up its first points in three games when Newark scored once in a 28-7 loss to the Wildcats. Howland High, in existence some 20 years, won its first football game Friday, 26-12, over Newton Falls (this is Howland's first football season).

Ken Zuk, Steubenville Central center, complained of a soreness in his neck as he warmed up for Saturday's game with eight-rated East Liverpool. Examination showed a fractured collar bone.

Last year Garold Dade of Circleville was an All-Ohio defensive back. His younger brother, sophomore Howard, leans a bit to offense. Against Reynoldsburg Friday night the youngster gained 225 yards rushing and scored twice.

Alliance's Win Young lugged reds Stark County in scoring with 42 points. Lowellville's 36 - game

When the rumors the Braves might leave began to pop up, the management said a decision would be made after the close of the season at a meeting of directors.

McHale explained that no form meeting was held. "Bill Bartholomay (chairman of the board) got in touch with all of them over the weekend. The decision was to do what was right, not only to Milwaukee but to the stability of baseball itself."

In his formal statement, McHale said, "in order to dispel confusion, my associates join me in making this statement:

"The Braves will be in Milwaukee, today, tomorrow, next year and as long as we are welcome. Normally, the results of a baseball operation and plans for the future are discussed at the end of the season. However, in this case, the Braves management feels that the air should be cleared."

McHale also said there had been no contact with the league office about moving the club.

Red Sox Sign Pesky To One-Year Contract
BOSTON (AP)—Manager John F. Kennedy of the Boston Red Sox has been signed to pilot the American League baseball club next season.

The Red Sox announced Monday night that Pesky had been given a one-year contract. Red Sox attendance is up some 200,000 this season. Pesky's first as a major league manager.

The American Bowling Congress this season will present awards to bowlers who roll a three - game series of 700 or more.

Texas A & M First Foe

3 Sophomores Will Start For OSU In Opening Game

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three sophomores will be in the starting Ohio State lineup Saturday when the Buckeyes wheel into the 1963 campaign before 80,000 fans with Texas A & M as the foe.

The first-year men are Dwight Kelley, a 212-pounder from Bremen at center; Doug Van Horn, a 226-pounder from Columbus at tackle, and Don Unverferth, a 205-pound 6-foot-3 quarterback from Dayton.

Four seniors and four juniors round out the starting corps, and Coach Woody Hayes is satisfied. He told his first weekly press luncheon guests Monday that teams made up from all three classes usually are welded into more cohesive units than those from a single class.

Seniors who have grabbed starting berths are Ormonde Ricketts of Springfield at end, Tom Jenkins of Dayton at guard, Paul Warfield of Warren at halfback and Matt Snell of Locust Valley, N.Y., at fullback. The juniors are Bill Spahr of Columbus at end, Ed Orzen of Euclid at tackle, Dan Porretta of Clairton, Pa., at guard and Ben Espy of Sandusky at halfback.

This is the first time the Bucks have faced the Aggies where the Lone Star State, who were beaten 14-6 by Louisiana State Saturday night at Baton Rouge. Ohio State has played Texas teams seven times for a 4-2-1 record.

In the last 20 years Ohio State has lost only two openers—both to Texas teams. Southern Methodist beat the Bucks 32-27 in 1950, and Texas Christian did it 18-14 in 1957. The latter also tied Ohio State 7-7 in the 1961 opener—the lone blemish on that season's Buckeye slate.

Loy, Deem Lower Course Mark In Pacing EL Runners

Ed Loy and Dick Deem broke the course record at Packard Park in Warren Saturday when the East Liverpool High cross-country team scored a 20-38 victory over Leavittsburg.

Loy placed first recording a new record time of 10:43 and Deem was a second back at 10:43.

Dixonville Gridders Win Opening Contest

The Dixonville Vikings, a Little League football team, opened its season with a 20-0 victory over the Wellsville Giants Sunday at Nicholson Stadium in Wellsville.

Kon Morris, Dave Bailey and Terry Hanna registered the touchdowns for the East Liverpool eleven which also added a safety.

The team which includes boys 9-14 years of age will play Chester Thursday night under the lights at Chester City Park.

Magic Number Is 1

Dodgers Could Clinch Flag By Whipping Mets Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—For the Los Angeles Dodgers the long, hot summer seems over. The champagne is cold. The magic number is one.

One win by the Dodgers—which could happen tonight at the New York Mets' expense—or one loss by the St. Louis Cardinals—at the enrichment of the Chicago Cubs—was all that the Dodgers needed for the National League pennant.

A Los Angeles radio station announced plans to broadcast progress of this afternoon's Cardinals game every half inning, and the listeners are sure to include a bunch of guys who would like to drive to the Dodger Stadium as champions.

"I don't care how we win it, or by what device," said Don Drysdale, the big, side-arming pitcher who is pitching tonight against the Mets.

"They can't say we backed into it, no matter what happens," said Drysdale. "We won five of six to get where we are, and three of those wins were head and head against the Cards."

The champagne is on ice in the Stadium Club at Dodger Stadium, and it's mighty cold. Some say it has been there since last year about this time, when an end-of-season plunge brought disaster to Dodger pennant hopes in a play-off loss to San Francisco.

On July 2 it was Drysdale who defeated Curt Simmons and the Cardinals, 1-0, in the same stadium, to put the Dodgers ahead. They've been there ever since.

He opposes Tracy Stallard tonight. Drysdale is 18-17, Stallard 6-16. In 15 games against the Mets this season the Dodgers have only lost two—and Stallard pitched one of them, a four-hitter July 30.

There was only one game scheduled in the majors Monday. Detroit whipped Washington 4-1. Norm Cash got the Tigers started with a first-inning homer and Rocky Colavito connected in the fifth with a man on. Phil Regan, touched for Don Blasingame's first-inning homer, won his 15th with one-out relief help from Willie Smith. Regan struck out 10 in 8 2-3 innings.

Southern Cal Pulls Top Vote In Football Poll
By The Associated Press
An early season match that could have a key bearing on the national football title is set for this Saturday—Southern California vs. Oklahoma at Los Angeles.

Southern Cal's defending national champions retained their hold on first place in The Associated Press poll this week—by a narrow margin—and Oklahoma moved up a spot to third. In between is Alabama, which entertains Tulane this Saturday and could shove into the top if the Trojan-Sooner game on the West Coast produces indecisive results.

Southern Cal, a struggling 14-0 winner over Colorado in its opener Saturday, had its front-running margin cut drastically. The Trojans received 23 of the 51 first-place votes cast by the special panel of sports writers and broadcasters to 16 for Alabama and on points it was a close 361-355, based on 10 for first, nine for second and so on.

Bama crushed Georgia 32-7 and took over second from Mississippi, which was held to a scoreless tie by Memphis State and fell from the Top Ten.

Oklahoma whipped Clemson 31-14, Texas climbed up a notch after a 21-0 victory over Tulane, and

Derenberger, Saltsman Top Performers

Floyd Saltsman and Ed Derenberger were named the top back and lineman of the week by the Beaver Local coaching staff for their performances in the victory over Springfield Local Friday.

Derenberger was cited for his play at defensive end while Saltsman a fullback carried the brunt of the Beaver Local offense.

A "coaches star award", a new citation, was given to Allan Copestick for his defensive performance.

The Beaver Local reserve team dropped a 26-0 decision to Wellsville Monday at Beaver Local. The loss was the second straight for the Beavers.

Potter Subs Beaten, 14-0

Recovering six fumbles but unable to turn any into touchdowns, East Liverpool's Reserves bowed to the Steubenville Big Red Reserves, 14-0, Monday in Steubenville.

Big Red punched across a tally with one second remaining in the first half and added another on a long run early in the third quarter.

The first score was on a one-yard buck, while the second came on the second play of the third quarter. The Big Red runner appeared trapped by three tacklers but broke away and scooted 60 yards.

The rest of the battle was marked by fair defensive play by each squad.

Coach Jim Potts' young Potters recovered six fumbles but their most serious threat was a drive to the Big Red 15 where they lost possession when unable to make a first down.

The loss evened the Potters' record at 1-1. They had opened with a 36-0 conquest of Wellsville. Potts sends his youngsters against Leetonia next Monday at 4:30 at Leetonia.

Night Schoolboy Football Games Off In Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The five-member City Board of Education has unanimously banned night high school football games.

The action, which accepted the recommendation of Schools Supt. Philo C. Dunsmore and the schools' principals, was taken Monday night without debate after Dunsmore read his statement.

Police arrested 37 persons, most of them teen-agers, in a series of last Friday night's Scott-Woodward football game. Four policemen were injured in the incidents.

The games will be rescheduled for Saturday morning and afternoon. Eight public schools are affected.

Dunsmore's statement said: "In every large high school there are some pupils who are trouble-makers. To these are added a number of hoodlums who are not in school. Many of these have a long history of being in and out of court. Unfortunately, actions of these few must determine, in a large measure, decisions affecting the total student body."

"However, the public schools of Toledo never have been and will not now become accessory to mob violence of whatever degree."

The Toledo Federated Council Youth Committee voted 21-9 to support the night game ban for Scott, Woodward, DeVilbiss, Macomber, Start, Libbey, Waite and Bousher high schools.

AFL Loses Plea In $10 Million Suit Against NFL

BALTIMORE (AP)—The American Football League has lost its appeal of a $10-million damage suit against the National Football League.

The U.S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals ruled Monday that a federal district court was correct in holding that the older NFL neither had a monopoly on professional football nor used its prestige to impede formation of the rival loop in 1960.

"The district court's finding that National did not have the power to monopolize the relevant market appears plainly correct," the appellate judges said in their opinion.

Junior Editors Quiz on FINGERS

QUESTION: Why are our fingers different lengths?

ANSWER: Man's ability to make and manipulate tools with his hands is a very great asset to him and has had much to do with the development of civilization. His thumb can move independently from the index and middle finger to hold and direct implements such as pens, brushes or tools, enabling him to write, paint and perform all kinds of delicate tasks (A). To understand the great value of the unequal length of the fingers, extend your fingers, with palm toward you, as in (B). Notice the great difference in finger length. Now close down your fingers into the palm (C), and you will find that your finger tips are all in about the same line. This enables the fingers working together to get a good strong grip on some object such as the handle of a tool. If the fingers were all the same length in position (B), man's hand, when closed, would be of much less value to him.

FOR YOU TO DO: Make a fist and look on the outside to see how neatly the knuckles all line up together. The amazing human hand can use tools, act as a hook, a scoop or dipper, and, in this last case, as a very serviceable weapon.

Patty McCormack of Salem, Mass., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: There's a certain couple in our crowd who bore everyone to death with endless reports of what their children are saying and doing. They have two kids who are bright and attractive but the rest of us have kids of whom we are pretty proud, too.

The mother carries the girl's themes in her purse and reads them at bridge luncheons. The father always "just happens" to have a letter in his pocket from the boy which was written when he was away at camp.

They both carry pictures, dozens of them — and I've seen the same batch of pictures three times. They forget who has seen and heard what, and I, for one, am mighty tired of the whole routine.

These parents are not stupid, yet they are not even remotely aware that they are boring their friends to death. Any suggestions? — CAULIFLOWER EARS.

Dear Ears: Isn't it awful when people won't stop bragging about their kids long enough to give us a chance to brag about ours? I know the type and they are insufferable.

There is no way to turn off proud parents. You may as well try to turn off the sun. If you just happen to have a couple of hundred pictures of your own kids handy it could break up the monotony.

Nursing A Hope

Dear Ann: I'm 18 years old and training to be a nurse. I feel that I know my way around pretty well because I've been dating since I was 12 and always had been considered mature for my age.

Three months ago I began to take stock of myself. I counted 17 fellows I've actually gone steady with and there have been at least 20 others whom I dated two or three times.

All I have to show for my popularity is a few beat-up rings, some cheap bracelets, dozens of pictures and a stack of letters.

Six weeks ago I met an intern who is a real doll. He has been dating other nurses but I think he likes me best. The problem is I can't get any kind of commitment out of him. He won't go steady and he refuses to discuss anything permanent. He says he is stone broke and can't think seriously about any girl at this time. How can I nail him? — EVE.

Dear Eve: I wouldn't say an 18-year-old girl is exactly a candidate for the Old Folks Home. Why should you want to nail anybody?

Just because you've dated a small battalion of guys doesn't mean you're mature. It only means you've been busy.

You have chosen an excellent field for service and for meeting people. I suggest you put on the brakes and forget about marriage for a couple of years.

Opinion Unchanged

Dear Ann: I read your views on giving boys a permanent wave and I don't agree that it is a bum idea. Listen to my story and you'll understand why.

When my son was 11 years of age I decided his hair would look much nicer curly instead of straight as a stick. So I gave him a permanent. From then on his hair was wavy and beautiful. All it needed was a little coaxing.

To this day (eight years later) my son has the prettiest wavy hair a person could wish for. Now, aren't you sorry you told that young fellow to leave his hair alone? — DAILY READER.

Dear Daily: No, I'm not sorry, and the advice stands. As for your son's hair remaining permanently curly after the permanent you gave him eight years ago, there is no scientific reason for it. Hair grows out of the scalp either curly or straight. If your theory added up, one permanent would be all anyone would need.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: How about that perfectly good clean and soapy laundry water that most of us who have semi-automatic washing machines let go down the drain?

I put the plug in our wash tub and always wash a few articles which have to be done separately. After they are washed, pull the plug. When the rinse water comes out of the machine rinse them the same way.

I have so many other ways to use these nice suds. Like that pair of new overalls or dungarees which usually fade . . . put them in the tub and use the plunger. . . .

When I bleach something out occasionally, I take a bucket and hold it under that nice, bleachy, sudsy water as it comes out of my washing machine hose and I have a wonderful solution to wash the steps and sidewalks.

I also use these suds to put my mops and brooms in. Swish them around and they come out fresh and clean. I save a lot of work time and soap powder.

Now wouldn't it take a man to tell us this? Thanks, Smitty! Be sure to rinse articles if washed in these bleach suds.

HELOISE.
DEAR HELOISE: There seems to be a perfect rash of women who have discovered that cornstarch, or cornstarch mixed with water, will remove grease from paper or painted walls. Tell them to try cleaning fluid. (BE SURE TO READ CAUTION LABELS ON CLEANING FLUIDS. HELOISE) rather than water, with the starch and see how much quicker and better it works.

Put a ball of crochet cotton into a plastic bag and slip a rubber band over the neck of the bag, drawing the yarn through the hole. This keeps the thread clean and the ball from rolling all over the place.

MARGUERITE SPAULING.

DEAR HELOISE: When redecorating after you have painted a room, and before buying drapery or slipcover fabrics, if you want an excellent sample of color to take along when shopping for material. . . . paint the inside of one part of a box (such as shoebox or dress box or the like).

This is big enough to give a good sample. Postage size samples from the paint store are entirely too small to give you a good idea of the correct color. Why be disappointed?

S. H.
DEAR FOLKS: Are you aware that you can use unseasoned meat tenderizer on chicken? Yes, you can!

If you've got it, test it yourself!

Buy a chicken, cut it in half, put meat tenderizer on one half and leave at least 30 minutes to an hour. Fry both halves of the chicken (this also applies when boiling, broiling or baking a chicken) being sure to stick a toothpick in the tenderized half, so that when it is all cooked you can test it.

This is especially good when baking in the oven or using a barbecue grill.

The reason I suggest using unseasoned tenderizer is because sometimes the seasoned tenderizer changes the taste of certain items. Read "Joe Blows" instructions! Seasoned tenderizer contains seasonings!

HELOISE.

Wash iron skillet after using them, then grease them lightly before you put them away. This will prevent rusting.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Weight Control During Pregnancy

This special story of how one woman controlled her weight gains during the latter part of her pregnancy and then got back in shape following the baby's arrival, can be a real inspiration. Her letter, written expressly to encourage an overweight expectant mother who asked for help, be- Ida Jean Kain gan: "Dear Expectant Mother"...

"I just had a new baby a few months ago and I, too, was overweight, so I know exactly how you feel. Before I became pregnant with this fourth child, I weighed 150 pounds, far too much for my height of 5' 2 1/2". I cut calories and succeeded in reducing to 138 pounds.

"IN THIS pregnancy I gained so fast it alarmed me. Up the weight ladder I went until by the sixth month I weighed 170 pounds. My doctor told me to cut out all extras, and to leave off all desserts, other than fresh fruit. I ate an abundance of fresh vegetables such as celery, carrots, tomatoes, string beans, and all the low calorie vegetables, and plenty of lean meat, fish and chicken (without the skin) as well as cottage cheese, eggs and skim milk. I ate these protective foods, but nothing else.

"Instead of gaining during the last three months, I succeeded in losing six pounds. The day I went to the hospital I weighed 164 pounds. My baby, a son, weighed 8 pounds, 14 ounces, so you see the baby's size was not changed by my dieting.

"The day after he was born, I weighed 144 pounds. In the hospital I ate too much and weighed 148 on the day I left. At home I promptly went back to curbing calories. I now weigh 135 pounds, and I intend to bring my weight to 125 pounds.

"CAME THE DAY when I went shopping. To my chagrin, size 16 wouldn't fit. Refusing to settle for size 18, I bought nothing. I started exercising to re-tone my abdominal muscles and get back in shape. I exercise each evening after the children are put to bed. Now I can wear size 14, even some size 12s. So good luck to you. Every day my family tells me how nice I look and that is sure music to my ears."

Our thanks to this courageous young mother for sharing.

The excessively overweight expectant mother can, with her doctor's permission, reduce during the pregnancy period. The diet during this special period must be planned to meet the increased needs for protective nutrients — particularly for protein, calcium and vitamins. For the overweight expectant mother, calories can be restricted to 1400 a day, but they must all be in the protective foods.

It's a wise mother who, after the baby arrives, starts reconditioning exercises the day her doctor gives permission.

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for Revised Calorie Chart, and exercise leaflet After The Baby Arrives. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.
